On Knowledge and Ḥikmah: An Interview with Sayyid Munir al-Khabbāz

What do the Qurʾan and aḥādīth teach us about knowledge and wisdom? And what can we learn from the lives of our ‘ulamā’, in the role of knowledge and wisdom in our own religious lives? We sat down with Sayyid Munīr al-Khabbāz to gain insights into these questions and more.

The Apprehension of Gleams of Infinite Light: The Upright Religion and Sectarianism

In this article, Shaykh Shuja Ali Mirza presents a nuanced perspective on how to balance the Oneness of Truth along with the reality of differing human perspectives.
Intellection in the Islamic Tradition: A Lecture by Shahīd Muṭahharī
Shahid Murtaza Mutahhari • August 16, 2019
A lecture by Shahīd Murṭaẓā Muṭahharī on the role of intellection (taʿaqqul) in the Islamic tradition, and the role it plays in the guidance of human beings.

A Drop in the Sea: The Life and Character of Mirza al-Shirazi
Sayyid Musa Shubayrī al-Zanjani • August 12, 2019
This article contains anecdotes by the contemporary marji’, Sayyid Mūsā al-Shubayrī al-Zanjānī on the exemplary scholar Sayyid Muhammad Hasan al-Shīrāzī, sharing reports of his knowledge, piety, and scholarship.

The Heritage of Scholars: A Review of Agha Buzurg al-Tihrani’s al-Dhariʿah
Dr. Aun Hasan Ali • August 12, 2019
In the following detailed synopsis, Dr. Aun Hasan Ali explores al-Dhariʿah ilā Taṣānīf al-Shīʿah, a renowned work in bibliographical studies that provides a glimpse into the vast intellectual legacy of Shiʿi scholarship.
Islamic History between the Ethical and the Mytho-Theological: A Contemporary Retelling of Islam’s Sacred Story-Part 1
Syed Rizwan Zamir • July 10, 2020
This is the first part in a two-part article on the historical thought of Sayyid al-ʿulamāʾ, Sayyed Ali Naqi al-Naqvi. The second part will...

Qurʾanic Taʾwīl: Comparing the Views of Ibn ʿArabī and ʿAllāmah Ṭabāṭabāʾī
Shaykh Hamid Raza Fazil • June 19, 2018
Explaining the Qurʾan is called taʾwīl, literally “the returning of a thing to its origin.” Yet the question remains: what origin or reality is it returned to?

Discovering the Unseen: An Interview on Istikhārah with Shaykh Muḥammad ʿAlī Girāmī
Taqrirat Journal • June 19, 2018
In those times of dire decisions, there is the istikhārah. In an brief interview, Shaykh Muḥammad ‘Alī Girāmī explains this "consultation of God," and what it entails.

The Qur’anic Biography of Imam Ḥusayn: A Translation of Sayyid al-ʿUlama’s “Ḥusayn (ʿa) and the Qurʾan”
Sayyid Ali Naqi Naqvi - June 19, 2018

Imam al-Husayn exemplifies the core ethical and spiritual principles of the Qurʾan throughout his life. In this treatise, Sayyid ul-ʿUlamā’ outlines an exegesis of the Imam's life "as given in God's Words."

Tadwīn al-Ḥadīth: The Prohibition of Hadith & the Prophetic Legacy
Sayyid Ahmad al-Madadi - May 23, 2018

Sayyid Ahmad al-Madadi discusses the early development of hadith, and why the ban on writing hadith could not have been by the Prophet's command.

Understanding Sacred Speech: An Interview with Shaykh Rizwan Arastu al-Sidra - May 23, 2018
None Know except the Knowing: Ahl al-Bayt & their Knowledge of the Qur’an

Mulla Muhsin al-Fayd al-Kashani - May 23, 2018

Can anyone fully understand God’s Words? Only those who first received those Words and inherited them, al-Fayd al-Kashani argues.

Şarfah: An Examination of the Debate on the Nature of the Qur’an’s Inimitability

Syed Shiraz Husain Agha - May 15, 2018

In a research article, Syed Shiraz Agha evaluates the various arguments Islamic scholars presented on the nature of the Qur’an’s miracle, as they contemplated the profundity of Islam’s most sacred text.
“The Book of God and My Family Shall Never Part Ways”

Dr. Aun Hasan Ali • May 15, 2018

Professor Aun Hasan Ali illustrates in this essay the pivotal relationship between the Qur’an and hadith, and how indispensable hadith is in allowing us access to Islamic law.

Is the Qur’an a Legal Text: Law and Morality in Islam’s Most Sacred Book

Hasan Kashani • May 14, 2018

Hasan Kashani, in an article on how the Qur’an portrays law, describes the integral relationship between Islamic law and morality, a synergy foreign to our modern conceptions of secular law and the modern state.

Opening Our Eyes to the Light of the Qur’an

Ustadha Fatemah Meghji • May 12, 2018

Ustadah Fatemah Meghji, in an essay drawing from the teachings of Ayatullah Jawâdî Āmulî, calls the reader of the Qur’an back to a fundamental principle: that the Qur’an is primarily a source of Divine wisdom & guidance, not a store of mundane facts & information.
Towards the Sacred Text: The Importance and Value of the Qur’an in the Life of a Believer

Mulla Muhsin al-Fayd al-Kashani - May 26, 2017

Mulla Fayd al-Kashani, in this translated introduction to his Tafsir al-Safi, explains the profound role the Qur’an plays in the life of a believer.

A Journal on Islam & Community

A Publication of the Ahl al-Bayt Islamic Seminary

Subscribe to Email List
Back Issues
Support the Seminary

Search